

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times. "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are no preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, the tonic, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Nausea, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin to brighten, the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant nutriment is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

QUEEN CITY SHOEMAKERS.

SOME DECIDE TO REMAIN OUT AND THE OTHERS HAVE TO.

Fitters and Lasters Refuse to Obey Cavanaugh's Orders—A Conference in Regard to the Reading Strike—Coke Works to Be Closed Indefinitely—Labor Notes.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—None of Blacker & Gerstle's shoe fitters or lasters returned to work this morning, in compliance with the orders of their master workman, acting under the orders by District Master Workman Cavanaugh. They are declared to be in open rebellion and insensible to threats of suspension.

Blacker & Gerstle say they will pay no attention to the resolutions passed by their employees Monday, but will, if they do not return to work in proper time, fill their places with fitters and lasters from other shops and other cities. The report that Thorne & Company's locked out employees had gone to work is not true. No work is being done in any of the locked out shops.

Hannah Powderly and Garfield assemblies consider themselves out of Cavanaugh's District No. 48 and in the jurisdiction of National District No. 216, and will obey the telegraphic order of Skellington, master workman of that assembly, not to return to work unless shop committees are recognized by the manufacturers.

Bering & Brother have withdrawn from the Manufacturers' association, and asked their employees to return to work at noon.

At 5:30 a conference of the Manufacturers' association and the combined local and district board was held in Cavanaugh's office. The manufacturers affirmed that after the present trouble was adjusted they would be willing to consider the advisability of establishing a system of shop committees.

The following order was then dispatched to the master workmen of the nine shoe assemblies:

"CINCINNATI, February 13, 1888.
"Brother —, Master Workman Labor Assembly No. —, immediately upon receipt of this notice order all employees of Messrs. Blacker, Gerstle & Company, members of your assembly, to report for work to-morrow morning, February 14, 1888. There shall be no vote taken on this order. Yours fraternally,
"HUGH CAVANAUGH,
"District Master Workman."

The Hannah Powderly assembly held a meeting Monday evening when District Master Workman Cavanaugh's order was read. No vote was taken. The prevailing sentiment, however, was that no one go back to work.

Late Monday evening Master Workman H. J. Skellington, of Shoemakers' National Assembly, No. 216, after consultation with the general executive board at Philadelphia, wired instructions to Henry Goodenough to keep all the workmen out until the manufacturers agreed to comply with the rules legally adopted last May, and which were to remain in effect for one year.

This assumption of authority is made possibly by a decision of the general executive board rendered in a parallel case with that of the Cincinnati shoemakers, and is based upon a section of the constitution of the order which grants absolute control of the trade matters to trade districts, whether or not the locals are attached to them.

A Reading Strike Conference.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—A conference in relation to the Reading miners' strike was held yesterday between Master Workman M. T. Lewis, of Miners' National Trade Assembly 135 on the one side, and Vice President McLeod, of the Reading Railway company, and President Keim, of the Reading Coal and Iron company, on the other, looking to an amicable arbitration and possible termination of the great strike.

The conference was held in the morning at the Fourth street office of the Reading company and lasted about an hour. The illness of President Corbin in New York prevented his attendance, but his lieutenant of the railroad company and his colleague of the coal company, were vested with ample authority to act for him in the consideration of the existing trouble between the corporation and its employees.

Master Workman Lewis, it is intimated, did not appear strictly in the capacity of a representative Knight of Labor or representative miner, but as an individual interested in the concerns of the miners. Neither of the representatives of the company, Messrs. Keim and McLeod, could be seen in regard to the conference, although attempts were made to gain access to them, and the representative of the miners, Mr. Lewis, declined absolutely, when seen, to speak on the subject.

These facts were learned from a good authority in railroad circles: The meeting was friendly and agreeable on both sides so far as it extended. A preliminary understanding was arrived at, which, it is hoped, will form the basis of future negotiations and lead to a speedy settlement of the strike. The causes leading to the cessation of work by the miners were freely explained by Mr. Lewis, and certain facts were brought to the notice of Messrs. McLeod and Keim, which had not been fully realized.

Coke Works to Be Closed.

SCOTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 15.—The H. C. Frick Coke company notified the labor organizations yesterday, according to the scale agreed to last July, that the following named works would be blown out indefinitely next week: Henry Clay mines, 100 ovens; White, 200; Tip Tip, 121; Foundry, 97; Eagle, 80; Summit, 142; Trotter, 464; Standard, 707; making a total of 1,911 ovens. The action is taken by the company on account of the continued scarcity of orders.

The step is causing considerable talk and comment among the cokers, but they all seem satisfied, and believe that the company's action is for the purpose of keeping up the price of coke. The closing of the works will throw over two thousand men and boys out of employment.

May Go Out to Assist the Miners.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 15.—As the grievances of the mine engineers, firemen, blacksmiths and mechanics generally have been endorsed by the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, the committee is expected to return from Philadelphia soon. A meeting will be called, to be held here Friday next, of representatives from all assemblies, consisting of the above classes of workmen, to consider the advisability of going out on a strike. National Master Workman Lewis endorses such action.

The company made no effort to start any more collieries to-day. The joint committee has decided to make a supreme effort to get the west end collieries out on strike again.

Compromised After Nine Months.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Feb. 15.—The strike in Buckley's shoe factory, which caused a boycott on the firm's goods throughout the country, has been compromised and the men who have been out since May, will return to work.

WAS A DAY TOO LATE.

While Being Examined For Life Insurance a New Yorker Drops Dead.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A medium sized, well dressed man entered the office of the United States Life and Accident Assurance association, 44 Broadway, yesterday and said he wanted to be insured. He was recognized by Dr. Henry T. Boyle, physician of the company, as C. E. Thickstein, who had the year previous taken out a $1,000 policy. He said he had pains in his head and the physician proceeded to examine him carefully. The doctor weighed him and measured his chest. Before testing his heart and lungs he turned to a small tray of bottles that stood near the window to inspect some fluid.

Hardly was his back turned when the applicant fell to the floor. The physician turned the man over on his back and loosened his collar, but it was of little avail, for the man died in five minutes, evidently of apoplexy. The body was removed to the police station and afterwards to his home on West Ninety-fifth street. One of the insurance agents said Dr. Boyle had drawn up a $1,000 policy for the dead man in favor of the latter's mother and of course he had to be examined. He looked as though he might be liable to apoplexy. I have heard of patients dying while being examined for an insurance policy, but this is the first time we have had such an experience. The dead man leaves a wife and one daughter.

Chief Ebersold Resigns.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Mayor Roche, shortly after he reached home last evening, received a note from Chief of Police Ebersold, inclosing his resignation, to take effect upon the appointment of his successor. The mayor says the chief of police gives no reason for his action. It is believed that he will be succeeded by either Gen. Fitzsimmons or Samuel Raymond.

Encounter With Robbers.

BRIDGEPORT, Ill., Feb. 15.—D. S. Porter, a wealthy farmer, and his wife had a terrible encounter with robbers Sunday night near Lawrenceville. Early in the evening Mr. Porter responded to a knock at the door, when a man entered and placed a revolver at his head. He threw his assailant to the floor, and while struggling with him a second man entered and held Mrs. Porter at bay with a revolver. Two more of the gang came to the assistance of their confederates and a terrific fight ensued. Some of the neighbors became alarmed by this time and the robbers made a hurried departure. Mr. and Mrs. Porter were badly and perhaps fatally injured. Several arrests have been made.

Judge Lynch Gets in His Work.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 15.—The Chronicle's Duquoin, Ill., special says: Aionzo Holly, the negro, who assaulted a coal miner's wife in this city, five weeks ago, was this morning taken from the jail at Pinckneyville and hanged by a noose of twenty masked men. He was strung up to a tree standing in the street within the resident portion of the town at about 3:30 this morning.

A previous attempt to lynch Holly was failed by the sheriff taking him to Belleville, from which place he was lately returned to Pinckneyville, on account of his obstreperous conduct while a prisoner there. Holly protested his innocence to the last.

A Boom for Duluth.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 15.—Engineers began to lay out grounds yesterday for the Union Iron company, at West Duluth, where extensive blast furnaces, rolling and rail mills will be built. The company is composed of local capitalists and parties from Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, and will have a capital of $1,000,000. The works will occupy eighty-five acres. There will be two eighty-ton blast furnaces, and the steel and rolling mills will be in proportion. It is expected that one of the blast furnaces will be in operation by fall.

Something for Us to Think About.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 15.—Acting on a request from the British government, the Dominion authorities are arranging to make extensive improvements in the defense of the country. A commission with Gen. Middleton as president has been appointed by the government to investigate and report on all the work and weak points along the Atlantic coast and Pacific, and along the frontier of the lakes, with a view to strengthening the fortifications already erected, and to construct new ones where required. Since the confederation of the British North American provinces in 1867 the Dominion government has expended $27,000,000 on account of the military force, of which only $1,250,000 has been expended on fortifications and barracks accommodations. The British government insists that this is entirely too small an amount.

Ought to Give Coercion a Death Blow.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The Daily News says that yesterday's proceedings in the house of commons ought to give coercion a death blow. The cause of Ireland, it declares, will be ever upon English platforms and in Irish jails, but peace depends upon the faith of Irishmen in the English democracy. The other papers make no comment on the proceedings.

A STREET CAR CRUSHED

Four Persons are Killed Outright and a Dozen or More Receive Injuries, Some of Which May Prove Fatal—The Accident Said to Be Due to Carelessness.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Feb. 15.—The most terrible accident that has yet occurred in connection with the building of the elevated railroad structures in this city, took place this morning at 9:45 o'clock, on Broadway near Ellery street, eastern district. The steam engine used by the union elevated company in hoisting the iron girders fell just as a Reid avenue car was passing under it.

The engine crashed through the roof of the car and the passengers, among them being several women, were buried in the ruins. Ambulances, fire engines, and hook and ladder trucks of the fire department were soon on the scene and aided in the work of rescuing the people under the debris. A gang of laborers, employed on the elevated road, were also put to work immediately to assist in the work of rescue. Seven people were killed outright and about ten or more received injuries. The wounded were taken to houses and stores in the neighborhood, where they received all the attention possible.

One man was seen in a grocery store with his head crushed in. He was struck by a heavy timber. Another was taken into a nearby liquor store, badly wounded. A lumber wagon had just passed under the derrick when the accident occurred.

The following is a list of the killed and injured so far as their names have been obtained:

Fat. Clark, employe of the elevated railway.

Thomas Thompson, driver of the horse car.

An unknown man; no mark of identification.

Jacob Bender, of New York, broken leg and arm.

John Freeman, of New York, scalp wound.

Miss Mollie Young, of Brooklyn, bruised body.

Nicholas, of New York, scalp wound.

Judge Peterson, slightly injured.

Thomas Voeberg, slightly injured.

George Davidson, severely crushed.

John Freal also received serious internal injuries and will probably die.

It is now learned that the body of the man who could not be identified is that of Michael McAuley, a workman, employed on the elevated railway.

Mrs. Menton, one of the injured, died at 1 o'clock at the St. Catharine's hospital.

The accident seems to have been caused by the upright beam not having been sufficiently well secured in the granite sockets, and when the weight of the lifting machines came upon the platforms, they gave way. The wooden beams were examined by the reporters and found to be much decayed where they snapped at the bolts.

The street car, it appears, would have escaped the accident had not a horse and truck intercepted it at the time. The truck horse shared the fate of the car horses.

Coroner Lindsay was early on the scene and made the necessary arrangements for holding an inquest.

The bodies of Kirschner and McAuley were taken to the Flushing Avenue station house. The other bodies were removed to a neighboring lot. They were terribly mangled and presented a truly sickening sight. It is not definitely known how many people were injured, as some of them hurried to their homes without reporting the extent of their wounds, but it is believed the list will reach a total of thirteen or fifteen.

Whisky War in Kentucky.

OWENTON, Ky., Feb. 15.—Owen county has been torn up from end to end over the bill introduced in the legislature to resubmit the local option, which has been in force in this county for a number of years. The whisky and temperance elements are ready to spring at each other's throat. Fuel has been added to the flame by the report that the names of a great many temperance people had been forged by the whisky men to a petition which was sent to the legislature. The coming contest over this promises to be a hot and long one.

Injured By Falling Timbers.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., Feb. 15.—Yesterday morning, about 8 o'clock, two men by the name of Triplett and Eberly were seriously, if not fatally, injured by the falling of some timbers from the scaffold on the Kanawha railroad bridge. The men are employes of the Kanawha Bridge company, and were immediately removed to their respective boarding houses, where they received medical attention.

Have Not Yet Found the Treasure.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A letter to the Herald from Belize, Honduras, says the search for Spanish doubloons by the crew of the yacht Maria has as yet been wholly fruitless. A great deal of digging has been done in the sand of the island Calabash Key, but except for some human bones nothing has been found.

A Quebec Tragedy.

QUEBEC, Feb. 15.—Leger Leclerc yesterday saw a man named Pershon driving about the city with his (Leclerc's) wife. During the altercation between the men which followed, Leclerc stabbed Pershon to the heart, killing him instantly. Mr. and Mrs. Leclerc have been arrested.

Shot His Sweetheart and Suicided.

BERLIN, Wis., Feb. 15.—J. W. Hacker, of Danville, shot and killed Mable Steike, of Belleplaine, Iowa, last evening, and then blew out his own brains. Hacker was nineteen years old and the girl a year younger. The tragedy is the result of a love trouble.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.

A Drunken Carousal Ends in the Death of Several Human Beings.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 15.—News has just reached here of a terrible disaster, the result of a drunken carousal, and by which six human beings lost their lives, at Silverbrook, a mining village about eight miles from here, Sunday night about 10 o'clock. In one of the houses situated a short distance west of town lived the families of Lawrence Maulick and John Delcher, both of whom keep boarders. Sunday they all came to this place to attend the dedication of St. Peter's and St. Paul's new Polish Catholic church, and before returning home became drunk. After arriving home they indulged freely in "polinki," when they became hopelessly stupefied, engaging in a fierce fight.

According to the story of one of the participants one of them named John Seddo upset a lighted lamp, which exploded and scattered the burning oil all over the clothing of the inmates. In their drunken condition six of them either did not know what to do, or were too drunk to climb out of the window, and perished in the flames. Their names are John Ellis, aged twenty; John Seddo, aged twenty-five; John Kebinski, aged thirty; Michael Yakovitch, aged thirty; Paul Siskovitch, aged thirty, and Mary Maulick, aged sixteen. Maulick and his wife and infant child were also badly burned, and it is feared they will die. Several other persons who were in the building, were also badly burned.

SOMETHING WRONG.

The Account of the Treasurer of the Philadelphia Elks Short $6,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—The members of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks are excited over a statement that a shortage of about $6,000 has been discovered in the accounts of their treasurer, David B. Hilt, the latter is a well known insurance broker of this city, and since 1881 he has been treasurer of Philadelphia Lodge, No. 2. As treasurer of the lodge, Mr. Hilt was the custodian of charity fund, amounting to about $7,000. This fund has been accumulating for ten years and more. It was Hilt's duty to deposit this money with the Fidelity Insurance Trust and Safe Deposit company, and a rule of the lodge, made it impossible for him to draw it unless he first had the check indorsed by the president and three trustees. It is now stated that this money has never been deposited. Trustee William Myers went to the office of the Fidelity company yesterday and was informed that Hilt's deposit to the Elks' account amounted to $1,515.26. Myers at once hunted up Charles E. Jones and Dick Hemmings, the other two trustees of the lodge, and they issued a call for a special meeting of the lodge. Mr. Myers saw Treasurer Hilt and he agreed to meet the trustees and bring his books.

LANING, Mich., Feb. 15.—The Grand Trunk train due here at 6:50 o'clock yesterday morning, was nearing Pottersville, running fifty miles an hour, when the side lock of the left driving rod broke, throwing the forward truck from the rails. The fireman jumped, but Engineer Jones stuck to his post. A second later the right side lock broke. With the rods alternately plowing into the ground and shivering the floor of the cab to atoms the engineer stuck to his post. Three-quarters of a mile from where the first lock broke the train was stopped. Had Jones jumped the train would have been dashed to pieces. A substantial purse was raised among the passengers for the intrepid engineer.

A Fatal Mistake.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—In Grant parish a few days ago, an old colored woman, Mary Driver, poured a quantity of rat poison, which she mistook for cooking soda, into a kettle of boiling cabbage, which was afterwards eaten by her family, consisting of herself, her daughter Grace, two grandchildren and a child named Nelson. In a few hours they were all taken sick. The grandmother, mother and one child soon died. The other children suffered terribly until the following day, when they also died.

In his active days he was a portrait painter, with a reputation extending over two hemispheres, and his literary work was also extensive. He leaves a large estate and five sons.

Counterfeit Silver Certificates.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The secret service division of the treasury department has discovered that a new counterfeit of the five dollar silver certificate has been put in circulation. The bill is about three-sixteenths of an inch too short. There are no distinctive lines in the paper. The general appearance is good, and liable to deceive, but the vignette of Gen. Grant is somewhat blurred.

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, FEB. 15, 1888

Not a Candidate for Re-Election.

Congressman George M. Thomas announces through the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette that he has "finally and definitely" decided not to be a candidate for re-election. He says "this determination is positive and absolute, under no circumstances will he be a candidate, nor will he accept the nomination if tendered."

Mr. Thomas is fifty-nine years old, thirty of which he has spent in active political life, and he now wishes "to shift to other shoulders the burdens as well as the honors of place."

Mr. Thomas says there are a number in his party who desire to succeed him, among whom he mentions Burchett, of Lawrence; Culbertson, of Boyd; Worthington, of Greenup; McCartney, of Fleming; and Messrs. Hutchins and Cochran, of this city.

He thinks the Democrats will choose between Rice, of Lawrence; Savage, of Boyd; Bascom, of Bath; Paynter, of Greenup; Hendricks, of Fleming; and Judge Whitaker, of this city.

Of course, he is particular to add that the Republicans will win the next fight, but that is only his opinion of the matter. He would not be very apt to express any opinion to the contrary. We believe the Democrats can win the fight, but to do this they must get a candidate who will unite the party. A united Democracy in the Ninth district means a victory.

As to the list of probable candidates given above, we do not think it wise to express any choice at this time. The party must go slow in selecting its leader. There are several months yet, in which to consider the matter.

The big mortgage from the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company to the Union Trust Company is pretty conclusive evidence that the old man's funds did give out.

CONGRESSMAN THOMAS says that if Blaine is out of the ring "Phil" Sheridan will certainly be the Republican nominee for President. This settles it. Sherman, Hawley, Foraker and the rest of 'em may as well quit.

Why all this talk about Blaine? If he is not a candidate for President, his party has reasons to rejoice. No man with the besmirched political record Blaine has should be thought of for President of this country. Surely, the Republican party would be better off to-day without the statesman from Maine.

"Mike McGraw" Opera Company.

One of the principal singers (?) of this company stepped into a store here last week to buy a collar. When the price was settled upon, he told the merchant he must come down, they were going to give the people the grandest show ever seen here since the opera house was built. In fact, a better show for 75 cents than people had paid $1.50 and $2 to see in New York, Boston, &c.

The merchant replied: "Yew, and in Portsmouth and Ironton for twenty cents." The singer (?) winked and stepped out.

Gospel Meetings.

W. S. Priest, pastor of the Christian Church, will preach to-night at 7:30, and each evening this week. Song service of twenty minutes will precede each sermon. All cordially invited.

Deep interest is manifested in the revival services now in progress at the Methodist Episcopal Church. Large crowds nightly assemble to listen to Rev. J. H. Herron, who is assisting Rev. Mr. Hanford. Preaching this evening at 7 o'clock.

The Mistletoe Club.

The ladies of the Mistletoe gave another of their delightful entertainments last Monday evening. It was the last of the season and those very generous and enterprising young ladies had done much to make it a memorable and enjoyable one. The hall was brilliantly illuminated. Pendent in the center was the sweet mistletoe bow, freshly decorated with valentines. About a dozen couples were present and dancing to the most delightful strains of music was enjoyed for several hours.

Refreshments were then served. These were served by the ladies, each lady providing enough for herself and best fellow. They were of a delicious and novel kind and served in appropriate style. It was whispered that these viands possessed the power of uniting forever the thoughts and hearts of the donees with those of the donors. Whether true or not the writer has been strangely affected. When all was consumed dancing was again resumed, and when finally the end came every one expressed himself as never enjoying an occasion so heartily.

Ohio Legislature.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 15.—Senator Sherman, ex-Governor Foster and Gen. Gibson visited the house this morning, and shook hands with the members. The whole morning was given to discussion of Peorman's bill to provide for a better system of tax returns. It authorizes county commissioners, auditor or treasurer to employ persons to inquire into cases of tax dodging.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—A reunion of the Confederate cavalry was held here Monday, of which a permanent organization was effected and a banquet partaken of. Lieut. Gen. Stephen D. Lee was chosen president. Gen. S. J. R. Chalmers, W. H. Jackson, Wirt Adams, S. W. Ferguson and others participated.

Goat with Red Whiskers.

Within the borders of that region which boasts of having been the oldest of the parts of Europe reclaimed by civilized man, in Greece, a new quadruped was discovered and is now exhibited in the zoological gardens of Berlin, Germany. It is a goat living upon the island of Joura, in the Strophade archipelago, north of the island of Euboea. Dr. Reichenow has examined the animal and given it the name of capra dorcas. There were a great many of them on the island formerly, and the Greeks call it Polygalos, or Goat Island. Shepherds have of late years invaded the island, which was uninhabited except by a hermit, and are waging so relentless a war against the goats that they are rapidly decreasing in number and will soon be extinct.

There is neither another zoological garden nor a museum in the world in possession of a specimen of this goat or of any part of it. That at Berlin is a buck, 8 years old, and still wears its summer fur of reddish yellow tint, with stripes of deep black, the dark necktie being of the greatest breadth. It is altogether striking in appearance. The domestic goat, it is thought, may descend from this species.—Chicago News.

TOTEM POLES OF ALASKA.

How the Indians Preserve Their Family History in Carvings, Mostly of Wood.

I have said that the family histories are regulated by the female side of the house, and this assertion would seem to indicate that they have means of preserving histories, a rare culture among the North American Indians. This assertion is true, limited though the historical information may be; and the means of preserving these scant family facts is in carvings, mostly of wood, in which art, it might be mentioned here, these Alaskan and British Columbian Indians probably excel all others on the continent.

In front of their wooden houses are often seen tall poles, sometimes towering two or three times as high as their little one-story huts, and carved on the outer face from bottom to top. These are called "totem" poles, and are nothing but long sections of the tall trees of the country, which, after being carved on one side, are placed in front of their houses. From a great distance these make the village, always just above high water mark on the seashore, look as if it had a large fleet of vessels, with great thick masts, in its front.

The carvings, while well done as a matter of workmanship, are of the most diabolical character, and each totem pole looks like a sculptured representation of so many linear yards of nightmare. Grotesque and hideous beasts, birds and fishes, with abnormal limbs, wings and fins, staring eyes and grinning teeth, are arranged one above the other, from bottom to top, like so many imps of Satan trying to reach the sky by climbing on top of each other. Those knowing the subject best say these totem poles are genealogical records or family trees. Generally two are in front of each house, one for the man and one for the woman; but where there is only one it belongs, as hinted, to the woman, or the woman's family history.

These Indians are divided, socially, into clans, of more or less aristocratic pretensions, and each clan is named after some beast, bird, fish or reptile, which the carvings are supposed to represent. Thus, to take the totem pole of the woman, the carving at the top represents the clan to which she belongs, as the raven, wolf or whale clan, and by a stretch of the imagination the beast, or what not, can be made out of the sculpture, in most hideous caricature, however. The next below is that of her mother, and so on down on the woman's side until the grass is reached in some ancient female ancestor, each one changing with the clan to which they belonged, and sometimes they are repeated consecutively many times, as one wolf or dogfish following another like a pack of wolves or a string of fish.

The man's totem begins with himself similar to that of his spouse, but here the similarity ceases; for instead of continuing backwards on his father's side, to keep up the resemblance, each recurring totem is on his mother's side, and representing the clans to which she and her female ancestors belonged, making both of the totem poles and their numerous carvings represent only the many clans to which the women belonged, with the single exception of the one noted, which stands for the "lord of creation" in the household before whose door the totem pole rears its quaint and curious carved column.—Frederick Schwatka in Demorest's Monthly.

The Case Settled for All Time.

ASHLAND, Wis., Feb. 15.—Commissioner Stockinger has transmitted to the local office the last list of patents for lands in the Omaha grant, which settles the question of possession for all time. Lists selected in 1883 and 1887 were patented last month and contain 6,478,090 acres on the main line and 6,337,175 on the branch. F. Weyerhaeuser, of Eau Claire, who paid the land office $70,000 to cover the indemnity of lands he had bought and wished to make title to, has received his money back since the lands were made over to the railroads.

The Tally Sheet Trial.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 15.—The tally sheet trial was very dull this morning. James D. Poston, who has been called to testify that like Hill said that he was going to offer Squire Martin the $3,000, was on the stand, but his examination had scarcely been begun when the defense objected and the whole morning was consumed in arguments as to the competency of the testimony sought to be obtained.

THE LATE CAPTAIN CURRAN.

The Mason County Bar Renders a Tribute of Respect to His Memory.

A meeting of the Mason County Bar was held Monday to take proper notice of the death of Captain Thomas A. Curran, late Commonwealth's Attorney of this Judicial district.

On motion of T. C. Campbell, Judge Coons was made chairman and Geo. W. Sulser secretary.

Messrs. Emery Whitaker, T. C. Campbell, James H. Sallee, L. W. Robertson and M. C. Hutchins were appointed a committee to prepare and report suitable resolutions relative to Captain Curran's death. The report was as follows:

Captain Thomas A. Curran died at his home in Dover on Monday, February 6, 1888, aged sixty-one. He was born in Harrison County, read law for a time in Maysville and was admitted to the bar and elected County Attorney of his county and served his people faithfully and well. From 1857 to 1879 he edited and published the Maysville Eagle. In 1880 he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney of the Fourteenth Judicial district and served the people in that capacity for six years.

In all his relations, public and private, he discharged his duties faithfully. He was a generous and kind-hearted man, a true friend and a kind indulgent husband and father.

His widow and children who survive him have the sympathies of this bar in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That as a token of our respect for the deceased a copy of this memorial be spread upon the records of this court and also a copy be forwarded by the secretary to the family of the deceased.

After addresses by Messrs. Emery Whitaker, T. C. Campbell, Geo. W. Sulser and James H. Sallee, the report was unanimously adopted and ordered spread upon the records of the court. A copy was ordered furnished the widow and family of the deceased.

A HANDSOME WOMAN.

Lillian Lewis Sometimes Called the Most Beautiful Woman on American Stage.

Miss Lillian Lewis, who is to open a two nights' engagement at the opera house on Friday evening, is a very beautiful woman, if reports speak truly. An admiring female writer for the Chicago Tribune, whose non-de-plume is "Holly Hock," has this to say:

"Lillian Lewis is of the type of a blonde which once in a decade springs from a sunny clime that revels in the dark and the voluptuous in woman. She has a tall, willowy figure, a lily-like throat, and a well poised head. She can be queenly if she choose, but is tender and loving naturally. Her eyes are large and lustrous, and lit by a soul that through their speaks of gentleness and purity. And yet this pretty, modest, unassuming girl has won her way in five short years to the front rank in a profession that embraces such gifted names as Clara Morris, Fanny Davenport, Modjeska and many more. Nor beauty, nor pluck, nor perseverance, nor talent even could have done this. Something greater than all these it required, the fire that is not kindled of earth and burns in the bosom of but few."

Running "Blind Tigers."

The fellow John Wesley Osborne, arrested last Saturday near Cottageville for violating the internal revenue laws by selling liquor without license, has not been taken to Covington as was stated yesterday. John Wesley has company in his troubles, as his neighbor, Christopher Columbus Hughes, is in custody on a similar charge. Deputy United States Marshal B. F. Warnock has been watching the couple for several months, and would have taken them in sooner, but he wanted a dead sure case on them. Recently they became very bold, and each had a "blind tiger" in full operation at his home. In addition to this, we understand, Osborne was a sort of "traveling saloon." The good people of the neighborhood are glad the couple are at last in the clutches of the law.

The accused were taken before United States Commissioner L. W. Robertson Monday afternoon, who held them over to answer the charge. In default of $200 bail each they were committed to jail until next Saturday, when Deputy Marshal Warnock will take them to Louisville for trial in "Uncle Sam's" Court, which will convene the following Monday.

The grand jury of Lewis County has been after Osborne on several occasions, and he has served one or two sentences in the jail at Vanceburg for violating the liquor laws.

THE body of Joseph Schley who was drowned off the tow-boat Harry Brown yesterday has not yet been recovered. He was forty-four years old, six feet high, weighed 185 pounds, was dressed in a dark woolen suit, with heavy overcoat and tall gum boots.

MR. BRUCE METCALFE, who has been connected with the Red Corner Clothing House some time, will start for St. Joseph, Mo., in a few days to take a position with the Robert Hope goods finishing goods establishment. Mr. Metcalfe will leave many friends behind, and we can recommend him to the community where he goes.

REVENUE agent Jaeger was in town Monday and went through the records in Deputy Collector Baldwin's office. Every thing was found in tip-top condition as usual. "Uncle Sam" hasn't a more careful, straightforward and obliging fellow in the revenue service than Bob. We have not heard a single complaint against him since he took charge.

MR. JOHN W. WATSON has been at Washington City in the past few days on a business trip. The Courier-Journal correspondent says: "He has been selling a great deal of old Kentucky Bourbon. Mr. Watson's impression is, and one might well believe it to be true, judging from his phenomenal sale, that it is absurd to suppose the district would ever countenance prohibition."

FOX RESSES returned last evening from Washington City. The object of his visit there is explained by the following special to the Courier-Journal last Sunday:

"Mr. Fox Respass, of Maysville, Ky., is in the city, located at the Harris House. He is here looking for a lucrative Government position. Mr. Respass has not fully determined in his mind what he really wants, but is quietly abiding his time 'a waiting and waiting' with the feeling that 'Barkis is willin' for something to turn up.'"

THE attention of the Committee on Internal Improvements is called to the condition of the walk across Second street extension, and the pavements in some other parts of the city. The citizens of the Fifth ward are complaining bitterly. The walk along Second street extension is as much used by pedestrians as any thoroughfare in town, and it should be kept in repair. The Second street sidewalk east of the bridge is also in a very muddy condition. The committee could use several loads of cinders at the points mentioned to a good advantage. And they should attend to it at once. Good walks are needed now, and not when the weather becomes settled and the mud dries up.

Work to Be Resumed Soon.

THE Enquirer says work on the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad and also on the Huntington bridge over the Ohio at Cincinnati will be resumed with vigor in the near future, and Mr. Ingalls thinks the entire line will be opened and both freight and passenger trains running into Cincinnati by the first of January next. It is reported that the completion of the road will be under the supervision of Mr. Ingalls.

The matter of re-organizing the Chesapeake and Ohio and consolidating it with the Maysville and Big Sandy is still in the hands of Drexel, Morgan & Co., of New York, who are expected to have everything arranged in due time.

Dress Making.

Misses Amelia B. Wood and Mattie Davis' rooms are on West Court street, second floor, above H. C. Hubbard's. Patronage solicited, work done promptly.

Wm. Turnpseed is not making a tour around the world, but is visiting Manchester and West Union for a while.

There was quite a lot of Maysville folks visiting in Aberdeen Sunday.

"Squire Beasley is holding up his end of the thing in the matrimonial business, during this bad break in the weather. Matrimony is something that neither stops for tide, the old man, watch dog or anything else.

The school is still making satisfactory progress. Jennie Shaw's composition on Intemperance was the best in the school this week. Messrs. Hill, Perry and Wilson, of the school board, visited the schools last week and were well pleased with the industry displayed by the pupils and their rapid advancement. Each of them gave the scholars a pleasant talk, which was highly appreciated. Ere long school will close and then will come the graduating exercises, which this year will eclipse all former efforts in that direction, and will be an enjoyable evening to those who attend.

CONTINENTAL MARKETS.

THE EFFECT OF EUROPEAN POLITICS ON THEM

Is Singularly Interesting Just Now—Bismarck's Speech Has Not Had the Effect That Was Expected—German Investors Extremely Cautious—Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The effect of the uncertain condition of European politics upon the continental stock market is just now singularly interesting. After having for a long time encouraged investments in Russian stock, the government and the leading newspapers of Germany last year set their faces against this kind of security.

Much uncertainty has existed as to whether this opposition was merely a matter of tactics, or was founded upon a sincere conviction, that it was dangerous to hold "Russians." Some persons heeded the warning and sold out, while others disregarded it, and there yet appears to be a good deal of hesitation in the minds of the Germans, who still hold a very large amount of the stock. Certainly Prince Bismarck's speech has not had the reassuring effect that was expected.

It is affirmed that the amount of Russian stock bought by Paris houses when the Germans were selling it last fall was greatly overestimated at the time, but still the French holders are now trying to realize on it. Both in Germany and France, therefore, the distrust of Russian securities is conspicuous.

On the other hand, American railway bonds and stocks have for some time past, as is well known, been taken very freely in Berlin. These have evidently been substituted by investors for the Russian securities which have been disposed of and which there is reason to believe have found their way to a considerable extent back to St. Petersburg. At present the attitude of German investors is extremely cautious. They fear that war may break out at any time, in spite of the many intimations that peace will be preserved, alternating, as they do, with frequent alarming indications. Hence, there is a disposition to keep money free in the unprofitable form of bank deposits, and the loan market is well supplied.

This abundance of loanable money gives rise to the expectation that the German 4 per cent. government stock will shortly be refunded at a lower rate, and the consequence is an indisposition to buy it at the present price. The supply of money in Berlin is increased also by the considerable amount of gold which has been forwarded to its bankers; thereby the Russian government, whose object in sending it undoubtedly was to sustain Russian credit in the German capital by purchasing Russian stock from time to time, in order to prevent its too conspicuous decline.

Released From Tullamore Jail.
DUBLIN, Feb. 15.—Mr. W. J. Lane, Nationalist member of parliament, who was sentenced to one month's imprisonment under the crimes act, was to-day released from Tullamore jail, where he had been confined. Very few people assembled at the jail and little enthusiasm was manifested.

The Crown Prince.
SAN REMO, Feb. 15.—The crown prince passed a restless night but is sleeping soundly this morning. The patient is free from fever and no bad symptoms of the throat have been noticed. He was forbidden to speak yesterday and made known his wishes by means of signs and writing.

Rowell Challenges Albert.
LONDON, Feb. 15.—Rowell, the pedestrian, has challenged Albert, winner of last week's New York walking match, to run six days and nights at Agricultural hall, London, or in America, for $2,500 a side.

The Emperor's Ball Postponed.
BERLIN, Feb. 15.—The emperor's ball, announced for to-night, and the guard's fete, which was also to take place to-night, have been countermanded, because of the illness of the crown prince.

THE SOUTH AMERICAN EXODUS.

Sensor B. K. Bruce Interviewed on the Subject.
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—Senator Blanche K. Bruce, formerly senator from Mississippi but now a resident of this city, was asked his opinion of the proposed negro exodus to South America. He replied:

"There is nothing in the so-called exodus, either to South America or to any other foreign land. The scheme involves two classes, one composed of honest, simple minded men without experience, and without the remotest conception of the magnitude of the venture; the other is composed of sharpers, who think they see in the proposed movement an opportunity to advance their personal fortunes. "Some of the latter class, I am informed, have recently appeared in northern communities as agents soliciting money to carry forward the work. To encourage such men is to put a premium on fraud, and in the estimation of the public, will do an incalculable injury to the colored people of this country."

Cremation Becoming a Necessity.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The rapid rate at which the potter's field on Hart's Island is filling up with the unclaimed dead induced Dr. E. A. McDonald, general superintendent of the insane, to write a letter some time ago to the commissioners of charities and correction describing the unhealthful results of such wholesale burial on the island and recommending cremation of the unknown dead. The letter was turned over to Corporation Counsel Beekman asking him if such cremation would be lawful. Mr. Beekman is now preparing an opinion which he will submit in a few days.

Cut His Wife's Throat.

A Gambler Suicides.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—At the annual election of officers of the Anti-Poverty society last night Dr. McGlynn announced before the voting that, by virtue of his power under the constitution as president, he had appointed several new members of the committee.
